

Subject: You have to experience this at least once in your life!

Hey Shelly

I couldn't wait to send you this email. I just came back from two weeks of total paradise. It was just what the doctor ordered. If you haven't already guessed, that means I finally took that trip to Hawaii I'm always talking about. I thought of you the whole time I was there. You simply have to experience it for yourself.

Picture those Elvis movies they did in Hawaii and now add you into the picture. It really is like that. Seriously, it was the most relaxing vacation I've ever had and I got to try new things I could only dream of.

I met so many amazing people from locals to tourists and got to listen to the beautiful sounds of live Hawaiian music each night, while overlooking the ocean – all from my hotel. It's the perfect vacation when you just need to get away from everything and have fun.

And don't even get me started on Uncle Mikey's dried pineapple. Wow. The local produce is incredible. This is a bonus for vegan girls like us. I'm fully convinced you can never see too many beaches. Each one is entirely different.

Everyone is so laid back and chill. For speedy streetwalkers like us, it felt good to just slow down and enjoy the moment. I stayed on Oahu and Maui. Both islands are completely different to one another.

Most of all, I couldn't believe how easy and affordable it was to organize this trip. You simply must try it for yourself. I can't wait to go back and check out the other islands.

Talk to you soon!

Joanne

P.S. Let's set up a time to chat so that I can give you the info so that you can start planning your vacation to Hawaii.
